

Baptistina - Song Lyrics

On the way home, a conversation
On the ... you are always telling I am blind
Well what's the difference, so pathetic
In your arms so defensively optimistic
Just waiting for a change, waiting for the change
Just waiting for the change, takes forever
What's the matter, when you always feel the way I feel
Baptistina!

...the signs, afraid of what else is Running through the dark and crushing you inside of ...
Just like a coward, that always ... I was made
But waiting for the change, takes forever
What's the matter, when you always feel the way I feel
Baptistina!
