

Hunnid Thousin - Song Lyrics

If a nigga aint home, don't start on his niggaz
Start on his bitch
If you wanna screw him, tell him he ain't shit

I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars to show my bitch a night
When you see me ballin' it's like kryptonite
And you ain't even Superman, you ain't even Clark, nigga
Make them leave my shit there
Make them leave my shit there
Real, nigga and I'm rich, nigga
This shit is real
Man, I'm looking like a beggar
All these niggaz, they're with me on a payroll
I've been a millionaire since the day 0
I might be singing to your bitch, but I ain't soft, dog
Don't scream my name just call me on my mobile
I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars to show my bitch a night
I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars on my bitch tonight
These niggaz are only mad at me cause they're broke
If they were like I know them, they be broke
I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars on my bitch tonight
Turn the lights on!
A hundred thousand dollars on your bitch tonight
Tell your broke bitch she be rich tonight
And it's you who blows my whistles live tonight
With a new form, baby it's the life

I was with the plug
I was getting doubt with it
Dope boy, pull up in a Lamborghini car, boy
Real talk, just to get some nigga and his brown
Came from the ghetto so much of despair
I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars on my bitch tonight
I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars on my bitch tonight
These niggaz are only mad at me cause they're broke
If they were like I know them, they be broke
I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars on my bitch tonight

I'mma spend a hundred dollar on my bitch tonight
Baby here's some Maserati, show it to your folks
Tell them I got it off the coke
But we ain't never trippin'
You are rich by yourself, you ain't need no fakers
First thing when you got your oak
You will need your everything to get your dope
Ain't no easy passwords, it's just us and the lights
I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars on my bitch tonight

I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars on my bitch tonight
These niggaz are only mad at me cause they're broke
If they were like I know them, they be broke
I'mma spend a hundred thousand dollars on my bitch tonight
Turn the lights on!
