

Armageddon Party - Song Lyrics

What would you do if you'll knew that you are almost throw
Know that I can't wait to go
Someone said another day that marks the end of our time
Fine, I can't wait to the end of the world
Life will be great when it's too late for the world
I always said no one cares until you're death, it's all I know
Cuz I can't wait to go
I can't wait to the end of the world
Life will be great when it's too late for the world
I can't wait to the end of the world
Life will be great when it's too late for the world
I can't wait to the end of the world
Life will be great when it's too late for the world
